Subject: My new neighbourhood!

Hi, Darren!

How are you? My new neighbourhood is great. There are lots of shops and cafes. I even have a sports shop right opposite my house! My Mum is very happy because there is a supermarket and a chemist's on our street. There is also a library next to the supermarket. I go there to read books every weekend. It is really nice here. Why don't you come and stay with me during the school holidays?

Love,

Andy

I wake up at six thirty, take a shower, have breakfast and go to school. Normally, I am at school fifteen minutes before the lessons. I chat with my classmates and prepare for the first lesson.

My favorite day at school is Tuesday because the first two lessons on Tuesday are English. I like English very much, it is a useful and interesting subject. My least favorite subject is Math. I am not very good with numbers. Most of the lessons take place in the same classroom, but some lessons, such as chemistry, take place in special classrooms.

Each lesson is forty-five minutes long. The breaks between them are ten minutes long, except for the break after the second lesson that lasts for twenty minutes and the thirty-minute-long lunch break after the fifth lesson.

During the breaks I watch videos on my phone or play with my friends. By the way, our teachers do not allow us to use phones in class. They do not like it, especially our Math teacher. He says that back in the day people did not have cell phones but they knew Math better.

This morning I get up at a half past six o'clock. It's still dark. I feel tired. I went to bed at 1 am and did not sleep enough. If a person doesn't sleep eight hours, it's unhealthy, I know. But today I take an exam. It starts at 9 am and I have to take a 7-hour bus if I want to arrive on time. I'm going to take a cold shower, to have a big coffee before getting there.

Here I am in the bus. The people around me look tired too; I'm not the only one. But I think about my exam. I don't like mathematics at all, I find it abstract, and there are too many rules. What's the sense of all these rules? To tell the truth I don't understand some of them.

The exam begins in ten minutes. I sit down and have a look at the other students, they are calm, and it seems they know everything. It's only me who does not know. I'm sure I'll be the only who will fail this exam, because I have not prepared enough. But I try not to panic.

Great Britain is the main English-speaking country in the world. It consists of England, Scotland and Wales. There are many interesting sights in each of these countries and their capitals: London, Edinburgh and Cardiff. Millions of people visit Britain every year to learn more about its places of interest. One of the most thrilling sights is the Stonehenge. It's an ancient monument made of stones standing either in circle or in a horseshoe shape. The origin and the meaning of these stones remains a mystery. However, the scientists think that it was used as a prehistoric calendar. Another attractive sight is Stratford-upon-Avon. It's a small city in England, where the most famous English writer Shakespeare was born. Stratford-upon-Avon is not only his Books play a very important role in my life. I think that modern life is impossible without reading. The more I read, the more knowledge and experience I get. I can't say that all books are useful. Some are boring and pointless. I like both fiction and non-fiction books, but my favourite genre is detective stories. This includes Sherlock Holmes and Hercule Poirot books. I started reading books when I was quite young, about 8 or 9 years old. My first books were fantasy stories and I really enjoyed them.

I wish I were in London now. If I were there I would organize an excursion and would give you a good idea about this wonderful city. As we know, London is the capital of Great Britain and one of the largest industrial and cultural centers in Europe. I suppose you will share the opinion that in this historic city modern rules shoulders with the old, the present arises from the past, the great and the small live side by side in mutual tolerance and respect and in every part of its noisy and complex life there is to be found a great affection for old traditions and history. The best starting point for all the excursions is well known Trafalgar square with Nelson's Column in the center. The square was named to commemorate the victory of British vice-admiral Nelson at the battle of Trafalgar in 1805 and the Column is surmounted with his statue. I have managed to see this monument and it has made a great impression on me.

There are many worthy and useful professions in the world. One of the most important fields nowadays is education. That's why teachers are respected worldwide. Being a teacher has always been a noble occupation. In my opinion, teachers of any subject are equally important. They teach us not only one particular subject but a set of rules that can be useful in our future life. All teachers are important. The teacher of History can give us sufficient knowledge about the past centuries. The teacher of Geography widens our knowledge about the world and different countries. Foreign languages' teacher helps us to master new languages and to learn the traditions of other countries. The teacher of Literature helps us to see the beauty of language expressed in words.

My home is my favorite place. This is the place I always come back after a busy day of school in order to relax and gain strength for new achievements. We live in a four-room apartment in one of Moscow suburbs. And there is nothing remarkable about our house: a simple five-story building made of gray brick. But inside everything is completely different. Behind the doors of our apartment, we managed to create a real paradise for every family member. So my parents helped me to turn my room into a fairytale corner with fluorescent wallpaper on the walls and a sky map on the ceiling. I have also chose the furniture and accessories for the bedroom myself that allowed me to create a very special atmosphere over here.
